DESCRIPTION/OPTIONS: 2012 GMC Terrain SLT AWD with V6 engine, leather, sunroof, fog lights, alloy wheels and lots more. According to reviewers, the 2012 GMC Terrain has an eye-catching cabin design with mostly high-quality materials, as well as impressive touches like ambient lighting. Reviewers gave the five-seat Terrain high marks for its spacious, supportive seats, which they said offer plenty of comfort for long drives. They also reported that the cabin is quiet. Reviewers liked the Terrain's standard MultiFlex rear seat that slides forward and back, allowing you to increase cargo space or legroom. The Terrain comes standard with a rearview camera, Bluetooth, a 7-inch touch-screen audio system, a USB port and satellite radio, which make it very well-equipped for the class.
